	UNIT 3 NAME	They know the theories of games.	They classify the games based on the Physical Education content.	Try out and practise different types of games.	They know and practise popular and traditional games.	They take into account the differences between popular and traditional games.	They accurately distinguish between game and sport.	They know the basic characteristics of individual sport.	They show interest in badminton and know its basic rules.	They know and practise the technical movements of badminton.	They show initiative and perseverance to learn new contents and do the exercises, and develop attitudes of respect and collaboration when working in a group.
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30											